2018 BCSC 156 Baryla v. Baryla IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA Citation: Baryla v. Baryla, 2018 BCSC 156 Date: 20180201 Docket: E51304 Registry: Vernon Between: Lorraine Marie Baryla Claimant And Gordon Paul Baryla and Pic River Investment Corp. Respondent Before: The Honourable Madam Justice Loo Addendum to Reasons for Judgment Counsel for the Claimant: R.S. Tretiak Q.C. M.L. Brus C.L. Hall Respondent, appearing on his behalf: Gordon Paul Baryla Claimant's Written Submission Filed: December 4, 2017 Respondent's Written Submission Filed: December 16, 2017 Claimant's Reply Submission Filed: December 19, 2017 Place and Date of Addendum to Judgment: Vernon, B.C. February 1, 2018

- [1] This is an addendum to my Reasons for Judgment dated September 29, 2017 (indexed at 2017 BCSC 1759). There are calculation errors in paragraphs 44 and 115(1).s
- [2] The Scott Schedule in paragraph 43 sets out the parties' assets and debts, including a debt of $364,113.68 that was subtracted from the assets to arrive at the amount of $828,829.38 to equalize the family property. However, in paragraph 44, I then stated that Mrs. Baryla agreed she should be equally responsible for the family debt of $364,113.68, and "that Mr. Baryla should pay her $641,772.54 ($823,829.38 - $182,056.84)." To subtract one-half of the $364,113.68 from the $828,829.38 is to double count the debt, and is an error. Therefore the compensation payment payable from Mr. Baryla to Mrs. Baryla in paragraph 115(1) of the reasons for judgment should not be $641,772.54, but should be $823,829.38.
- [3] Paragraph 44 is amended and will now read:
- [44] Mrs. Baryla claims that Mr. Baryla should pay her $823,829.38 ($1,647,658.76 x 50%) so that there is an equal division of the family property.
- [4] Paragraph 115, point 1, is amended and will now read:
1. Mr. Baryla will make a $823,829.38 compensation payment to Mrs. Baryla. "Loo J."

The Honourable Madam Justice Loo
