JUDGMENT

THE BAILIFF: 1. Affray is a serious offence. Putting members of the public in fear of physical violence by carrying knives and a stick in the immediate neighbourhood of a toy shop when children were present is unacceptable behaviour. Furthermore, the offence was committed whilst you were on remand for the offences of larceny. We understand that you were under stress from your experience of the death of your friend's stepfather but that was no justification for your behaviour. We accept that you have pleaded guilty to the offences and that you are entitled to credit for that. 2. We have given careful consideration to the recommendations in the probation report, but we think that this is not an appropriate case for the imposition of a non-custodial penalty. Applying the totality factor we are going to modify slightly some of the conclusions of the Crown Advocate and you are therefore, sentenced as follows. On Count 1, you will be fined the sum of £100 or in default of payment 1 week's imprisonment. On Count 2, you will be sentenced to 2 months' imprisonment. On Count 3, to 1 week's imprisonment. On Count 4, to 7 months' imprisonment. On Count 5, to 18 months' imprisonment. On Count 6, to 1 month's imprisonment. On Count 7 to 3 months' imprisonment. All those sentences will run concurrently, making a total of 18 months' imprisonment and a fine of £100. The forfeiture and destruction of the drugs is ordered.
