JUDGMENT

THE BAILIFF: 1. Corvel, you have betrayed the trust placed in you by the prison authorities and you quite deliberately attempted to smuggle drugs back into the prison. Those drugs were, in part at least, intended for other prisoners. It is true that the quantity of drugs was relatively small, but smuggling drugs into prison is a serious offence which must attract a custodial sentence. 2. We have taken into account all the matters raised, quite properly, by your counsel on your behalf, but we consider that the conclusions of the Crown Advocate are correct. Therefore, on count 1, you are sentenced to 6 months' imprisonment; on count 4, to 12 months' imprisonment; on count 5, to 1 month's imprisonment; on count 7, to 1 month's imprisonment. All those sentences will run concurrently and we order the forfeiture and destruction of the drugs. Authorities Thomas: Current Sentencing Practice: pp. 25514, 25514/2 - 25515. Gregory -v- A. G.
