JUDGMENT

THE DEPUTY BAILIFF: 1. You are here to be sentenced for your part in a conspiracy to import 110 grams of heroin into Jersey from Glasgow with a Jersey street value of £110,000. Your three co-conspirators have already been sentenced on an earlier occasion. 2. As the Crown has said, from a consideration of the evidence available from telephone analysis and the actions you have taken, you were close to the centre of this importation and we are satisfied, as indeed is accepted by your counsel, that a starting pint of 11 years is appropriate in these circumstances. 3. We have considered the mitigation available to you, your guilty plea in particular, which goes very much to your credit and for which we have allowed a full value. We have also read with great care the letters that have been sent of your behalf; they do speak well of you and they suggest that you are trying to turn your life around, especially the letter from your partner and from her mother. You do not have the benefit of good character, indeed you have previous convictions for the possession of drugs, but there have been no convictions since the birth of your children. 4. We make the Confiscation Order requested in the following terms: we declare you have benefitted to the extent of £275 and we order a nominal confiscation as requested by the Crown. 5. We have considered with care the length of the sentence that we should impose. The guidance of the Court is clear and we think that the Crown has assessed the appropriate level of sentence correctly. We feel able, however, to make a small adjustment and you are sentenced to 7 years' imprisonment. 6. We also order the forfeiture and destruction of the drugs.
