JUDGMENT

THE BAILIFF: 1. The Court agrees that both Newell and Ford bear equal responsibility for this offence which was, without question, a joint enterprise. 2. Newell, you have a very bad record and you must have known the likely consequences of committing an offence of this kind. We have taken into account your guilty plea and your co-operation with the police and the letter which you have written to us and you are entitled to credit for the mitigating factors. We are not impressed by the disparity argument. Your co-accused was young enough to be your son and he was entitled to receive some small discount for his youth. We think that the conclusions are moderate and you are accordingly sentenced on the single count on the indictment to 15 months' imprisonment. Take him away, please. Authorities A.
