JUDGMENT

THE COMMISSIONER: 1. It is recommended by the Probation Service that you be made subject to a Community Service Order. If you were not 19 years old we would be considering imprisonment. The Criminal Justice (Young Offenders) (Jersey) Law 1994 states "the Court shall not pass a sentence of youth detention unless it considers there is no other method of dealing with the young person". 2. You will recall when you appeared in the Royal Court on 14 th October, 2005, the Court said, quite strongly, that it had been considering a youth detention of 18 months, but it eventually decided to impose Community Service. 3. I think you are fortunate that you did not cause any injury to the police officer when you bit him. You have some excellent references, but you must come to grips with your drinking problem. Police officers are not looking for trouble, they only came to the flat because of your totally unacceptable behaviour. 4. We are going to follow the conclusions of the Crown on Counts 1, 2 and 3 and the breach of the Community Service Order. We will order that you complete the outstanding 80 hours, but you must also serve a 12 month Probation Order and in order to help you with your drink problem it is required that you attend the alcohol study group. It is absolutely essential that when you are told to attend a meeting you attend it. If you do not, you will be brought back here, and we are not going to be as lenient as we have been today.
