JUDGMENT

THE commissioner: 1. The defendant was committed to this Court for one count of grave and criminal assault and one count of malicious damage. He was acquitted of the grave and criminal assault and therefore stands to be sentenced for the malicious damage, an offence which ordinarily would be dealt with in the Magistrate's Court. The very brief facts are that in the course of an argument with his co- habittee , and under the influence of alcohol, the defendant punched the bedroom door damaging it. The defendant is a man of good character and has written to us apologising for his behaviour and he does not oppose the conclusions of the Crown. 2. We therefore impose a fine of £200 or 2 weeks' imprisonment in default and we order you to pay compensation of £150 to your co- habittee . You have one week in which to pay. No Authorities
