JUDGMENT

THE COMMISSIONER: 1. The Court has considered the submissions made by the defendant representing himself and by Advocate Jones who has stayed on in Court to assist for which we are grateful. In the light of those arguments we are going to set out our reasons in a written judgment which will follow shortly, but we can say that after careful consideration we agree with the conclusions of the Crown. 2. On each of Counts 10, 11 and 12 you are sentenced to 7½ years' imprisonment to run concurrently. That is a total of 7½ years' imprisonment. 3. In terms of the confiscation proceedings we agree that there are exceptional circumstances here warranting an adjournment of the Attorney General's application and that will therefore be adjourned for a date to be fixed and we direct the parties to attend upon the Bailiff's judicial secretary to fix that date. 4. We leave it to the Viscount as to whether she wishes to get the input of the defendant's brother, Thaddeus Pearce, on the third part claims set out in the inventory prepared by the Viscount.
