JUDGMENT

Reference: [2020] TRE 64 Hearing Date: 17 June 2022 Before: Advocate C E Whelan, Deputy Chairman Appearance: Claimant In person Respondent: Mr Gavin Roberts

Judgment

of the Tribunal The Respondent had not met the deadline for the filing of a response to the claim that the Claimant had not received payslips at the proper time; accordingly the Respondent could not be heard to dispute the claim but was entitled to participate in the remedies hearing, and did so. These are the orders resulting from that hearing, which took place on 17 June 2022. There was a brief discussion about the facts and about the principles on which the Tribunal approaches payslip claims, as set out in the published guideline. I established from the parties that the Claimant earned £192 per day during his employment with the Respondent. Taking that as the daily rate, and taking account of the facts, I awarded the Claimant 7 days' pay, thus making an award of £1,344. Noting that the Respondent is seeking liquidation, I received an undertaking from Mr Roberts on behalf of the Respondent that he would notify the Registrar of the Tribunal as soon as a liquidator was appointed, so that the Registrar could notify the Claimant of that appointment immediately. Orders accordingly. Advocate C E Whelan, Deputy Chair Dated: 17 June 2022
