Respondent to provide certificate of service to the grievants within 30 days of the judgment F. The Respondents to pay the costs of the suit. The decretal sum was settled in respect of all the grievants excepts one Geoffrey Kangethe who has made several applications to this court with a view to have the quantum of his award agreed upon and/or determined by the court. The court made a ruling on the matter on 10/7/2025 and Geoffrey Kangethe the grievant/Applicant said he was happy with the ruling and filed computation dated 4/12/2025 while Mr. Makale for the union filed undated computation. Mr. Makale informed the court that all grievants were paid directly and that Geoffrey Kangethe, should be guided by the said ruling. Geoffrey submitted that he did not get personal tax relief of Kshs. 2,400 which was deducted on net pay and the court should make a ruling on it. Geoffrey added that severance pay was also not paid. The court finds that the 1st Respondent wrongly failed to allow the Applicant tax relief in the sum of Kshs. 2,400/= while deducting and remitting PAYE to the tax authority and should refund the same to the Applicant, Geoffrey Kang'ethe. The Applicant, Geoffrey Kangethe is entitled to payment of severance pay as set out in the tabulation dated 4/12/2025 less any amount already paid.
