JUDGMENTWEIDEMAN, AJ:

There was an application before me to lead the evidence by way of a Rule 38(2), which application was granted.

The matter commenced with a discussion between counsel and the Court about the question of negligence. In this regard, the documentation is in conflict with each other and there is no explanation available on the papers as to why that is so.

The application for default judgment is refused as the matter is on the default judgment roll. I am making no order as to costs.
