JUDGMENT

- [1] This is an opposed application for leave to appeal against the whole of the judgment and order granted by this Honourable Court on the 24th March 2023.
- [2] On the aforesaid date I gave an order in favour of the applicant in the following terms;
1. The 1st and or the 2nd Respondents are ordered to restore forthwith to the Applicant full access to and undisturbed possession of the polo fields, Harrismith by removing the fence that was erected on the 24 and 25 January 2023.
 2. The Respondents are ordered to pay the costs of this application, on a party and party scale, jointly and severally, the one paying, the other to be absolved.
- [3] Their comprehensive grounds for leave to appeal are set out in the application for leave to appeal. For brevity's sake, the truncated grounds are that the court erred in finding that;
- 3.1. it was not the applicant's case that it had sole and exclusive use of the polo fields.
 - 3.2. it is inexplicable why the respondents would wait almost a year before acting against the applicant's infringing actions.
 - 3.3. no genuine or bona fide dispute of fact existed.
 - 3.4. the applicant had de facto possession of the polo fields.
- [4] They consequently contend that there are reasonable prospects of success that another court would find that :
- 4.1. the respondents raised genuine and bona fide disputes regarding the applicant's possession of the polo fields.
 - 4.2. the applicant did not establish that it was in free and undisturbed possession of the polo fields.
 - 4.3. the applicant has not made out a case for the granting of the spoliation order; and
 - 4.4. the application ought to have been dismissed with costs.
- [5] Pursuant to receiving the notice of the application for leave to appeal as well as the notice to oppose, I requested the parties to favour the Honourable Court with heads of argument. I am indebted to them for their comprehensive heads of argument. For that reason, I do not intend repeating their submissions herein.
- [6] It is trite that leave to appeal may be given where the judge or judges concerned are of the opinion that the appeal would have a reasonable prospect of success[1].

[7] Having had regard to the grounds advanced in support of the application for leave to appeal, the submissions by the parties, as well as having reflected on the 24th March 2023 judgment, It is my considered view that the respondents do not have reasonable prospects of success.

[8] Consequently, I make the following order:

1. The application for leave to appeal must fail and is dismissed with costs.
