Mr. Okwan submitted, therefore, that the girl's evidence on this point was corroborated by the evidence of the Headmaster and

L. D. U of the area, PW4. In his view, the arrest of the girl by PW4 in the company of the appellant corroborated the girl's evidence regarding the identity of the defiler.

We find no merit in the argument of Mr. Zagyenda. What required corroboration were the act of defilement and the identity of the assailant but not the date of arrest. The evidence of PW4 was that he found the victim in company of the appellant and arrested her while the appellant ran away. The conduct of the appellant in running away when PW4 found him with the victim and his attempt to flee from the area was not, in the circumstances of the case, consistent with that of an innocent person.

that of an innocent person.

Mr. Okwanga further submitted rightly, in our view, that the girl testified that the appellant used to have sexual intercourse with her in diverse places in the bush near his home. According to the evidence of the girl, the appellant told her that if they had the house they would be found and arrested. The girl showed PW5 diverse places where they had slept and had sex. P. C. Mukundane Julius, PW5, who visited the scene saw such places and that piece of evidence, in our view, also corroborated the evidence of the girl that it was the appellant who defiled her.

As regards contradictions in the evidence of PW4 and PW5, if any, Mr. Okwanga submitted that they were minor due to lapse of time and not a deliberate lie, to court. We agree.
