banda, learned Counsel for the appellant, criticised the trial judge for convicting the appellant when the element of sexual intercourse had not been proved beyond reasonable doubt. He argued that the medical evidence by the doctor (PW2) who examined the victim was not sufficient to corroborate her testimony. According to counsel, that evidence revealed no injuries on the victim to prove forced sexual intercourse. He further criticised the evidence of Katabazi Margaret, (PW5), the police woman, who claimed to have examined the victim and found some kind of penetration as she saw semen in the area around her private part. He submitted that that evidence is worthless to prove sexual intercourse because the police}\rtlch\fcs1 \af0 \ltrch\fcs0 \insrsid15280046 }\rtlch\fcs1 \af0 \ltrch\fcs0 \insrsid6005\charrsid6005 woman is not an expert. }\rtlch\fcs1 \af0 ient evidence to prove sexual intercourse. He argued that for the ingredient of sexual intercourse, the trial judge did not rely on the medical evidence as the examination was carried out on the victim two weeks after the event when all evidence of sexual intercourse would have been lost. According to him, the trial judge relied on the evidence of the victim and of her daughter Nakayima who witnessed the sexual act. Learned Senior State Attorney submitted that the trial judge was therefore entitled to beli

Medical evidence is certainly the best evidence to prove sexual intercourse but it is by no means the only one. Other cogent evidence could also do. In the instant case, the trial judge dealt with that issue in her }\rtlch\fcs1 \af0 \ltrch\fcs0

On the ingredient, I have also considered the evidence of Nanyonga (the victim), her account of the offence was straight forward. She maintained the same account of the event and was not shaken in cross-examination. She described to court what was done to her by some man on that path as she returned to her home from the introduction party. She said accused had sexual intercourse with her on a path. Her story is supported almost word for word by the testimony of Seporoza Nakayima (PW2).

For word by the testimony of Seporoza Nakayima (PW2) the two witnesses. I find therefore that some man had sexual intercourse with PW2 on or about the 16th July 1995.

Despite lack of medical evidence proving sexual intercourse, I believe the testimony of the two witnesses.

I find therefore that some man had sexual intercourse with PW2 on or about the 16th July 1995.

We think that the trial judge was justified on the evidence of these two witnesses to find that sexual intercourse had been proved beyond reasonable doubt. Their evidence shows not only that the appellant had sexual intercourse with PW2 but also that he did it forcibly without her consent. He grabbed her from behind, threw her down when his trousers were all ready removed, and had sexual intercourse with her on the path. It is not part of the element of rape that the victim should have any injuries. What is necessary is proof of penetration and lack of consent. We find no merit in this ground and it fails.

The next is ground 4 which complained about the sentence of 15 years imprisonment as being harsh and excessive. Mr. Kibira a first offender and the 4 years he spent on remand, the 15 years was still harsh and excessive in the circumstances. }{\rtlch\fcs1 \af0 \ltrch\fcs0 \insrsid12601664

\par }{\rtlch\fcs1 \af0 \ltrch\fcs0 \insrsid6005\charrsid6005 We find no merit in this ground. The maximum sentence for this offence is death. The circumstances in which the appellant committed the offence justified the sentence. He violated the dignity of the victim on a path, a public place and in the presence of her daughter, Nakayima. That was beastly and deserved that penalty. It was for these reasons that we dismissed the appeal.
