a number of homes in Bunafu village in Iganga District were robbed by some thugs and a number of household items, and merchandise including drugs were stolen. The thugs murdered one Matovu Silveste who was beating a drum to warn the villages of the presence of the thugs. One of the victims, Nyiro Vincent, PW4 was made to carry the stolen properties and to follow the thugs from house to house. The thugs set PW4 free when they reached a spot where they shared the stolen properties. Four suspects including the appellants were arrested and charged. One escaped. One was acquitted and discharged.

The defence of the first appellant was that he was a soldier attached to the Magamaga Barracks. He was told by his commanding officer to go to Tororo for his Salary on 7/1/95. He was given Shs. 4,500/= for transport and was advised to take a vehicle to Iga nga and a train from there to Tororo. He went to the armoury and signed for a gun and ammunitions. He, however, did not leave that night. Instead, he left the barracks at 6 a.m. on 8/1/95 and reached Iganga after 8 a.m. He boarded a bicycle that took him to Tororo. As he was walking towards the railway station he was stopped by a man in civilian clothes. The man had a gun. The man ordered him to put down his gun and move towards him. The man threatened that he would

him if he disobeyed. When he tried to explain his mission to the man, the man ired one shot in the air. This was followed by a second shot that hit his left knee and nd a third one that injured his thigh. He fired seven shots in the air to defend himself as he did not know the identity of the civilian. During the exchange of gun fire between him and the civilian, the Iganga Police and the Military arrived at the scene. He surrendered himself and was arrested. He denied that he was carrying a bag. He also said he does not know Bunafu village

e. He denied having committed the offences charged.

The defence of the second appellant was to the effect that he was at Namwendwa Isingo Bugabula village in Kamuli District on

The submission of Mr. Ssenkooba, learned counsel for the appellants, on the first ground was that the conditions were not conducive for proper identification. His reasons were that PW4 said that he could not recognise any of the assailant\quote s in his house, but he managed to recognise them at the home of Butalya with the aid of a tadoba light and torch light which the thugs were flashing and passin g from one person to other. According to counsel the source of light was not sufficient for correct identification. For the respondent, Ms. Damali Lwanga has submitted that the appellants were correctly identified by the prosecution witnesses. It is there fore necessary to examine closely the evidence of identification. }\rtlch\fcs1 \af0 \ltrch\fcs0 \insrsid12855175

\par }\rtlch\fcs1 \af0 \ltrch\fcs0 \insrsid13849664\charrsid2055109 The first witness who identified the first appellant was PW1. He said that he was seated behind his house having supper when three men he did not know came and greeted him. He offered them seats but they refused to sit down. They said that they were in a hurry. They ordered him to enter in the house and give them money. It was then that he apparently realised he had problem on his hands. The three men manhandled him. They took his Shs. 7000 a wrist watch, and a small radio. One of the thugs who had a gun went out and shot in the air. The thugs locked him inside the shop and went away. He was later invited to the police station where he identified his small radio. He said that he could only recognise the first appellant that night. He could not recognise the two other men who were with him. He said that there was a faint moon light outside. He had a hurricane light in the house. }\rtlch\fcs1 \af0 \ltrch\fcs0 \insrsid12855175

\par

\par }\rtlch\fcs1 \af0 \ltrch\fcs0 \insrsid13849664\charrsid2055109 The second identifying witness of the first appellant was PW4.

He said that he could not recognise any of the thugs in his house, but he managed to recognise the first appellant and Mutwalibu Katende who escaped. He said that the first appellant had a gun and was wearing an army uniform and an army cap. They first to ok him to Mutalya's house where they stole 120,000/= from a jimtex bag. They ordered him to take them to Batalya's house where they stole a bale of clothes. There was tadoba in Batalya's house. Besides the tadoba light, the thugs had a torch light which the were flashing around. The room where they were was small, measuring about 3x2 metres. He stayed in that room with them for less than one hour. He said that he recognised the appellants properly when they were putting the load on his head. He followed the thugs up to a spot in a bush where he was told to put down the luggage and untie it. When he untied the luggage he found in it batteries, biscuits and tablets. It was at this stage that he was allowed to go away. PW4 said that he first got to know the first appellant when the second appellant came to Iganga with him and introduced him as the one who stood surety for him when he, the 2nd appellant, was remanded in custody for allegedly killing his father. In our view the evidence of PW1 and PW4 is enough to connect the first appellant with the offence. The evidence of PW5 relating to his arrest and the properties found in the bag found in his possession at the time of his arrest. PW5 said that he was going to dig when he saw a soldier being carried on a bicycle. The soldier was telling the rider to hurry. The soldier had an army uniform without a cap. He ordered the rider to stop. The rider and the soldier got off the bicycle. They left the bicycle and started walking away.

He told them to stop and fired a warning shot. The rider and the soldier began to run. He fired a second shot. The Iganga Police and the Military came and arrested the soldier and the rider. The soldier turned out to be the first appellant. At the time of arrest he was carrying a bag. The bag was found to contain some syrup and some \insrsid13849664\charrsid2055109 The incident took place that night. Therefore he was in position to participate in the offences. He was seen a civilian dress. The first appellant did not know who he was. Yet all that a soldier in uniform, armed with a gun and going on a lawful errand did in the face of the extreme provocation was to fire seven shots in the air. That story was too sweet to be tr

\par

\par }{\rtlch\fcs1 \af0 \ltrch\fcs0 \insrsid13849664\charrsid2055109 What the above evidence proves is that a number of houses in Bunafu village were b roken into and various household properties and drugs were stolen from them in the night of 7/1/95. Less than twelve hours after the thefts the first appellant was found in possession of some of the stolen properties. The first appellant failed to give an acceptable explanation of how he came by them. He put forward an alibi which was not acceptable. On those facts it was open to the learned trial judge to find that he was guilty not merely of receiving the properties but of the robbery itself. In the cou rse of the robbery somebody was shot and killed. It matters not whether he was the one who fired the shot or not. But it so happened in this case that PW4 saw him actually shooting the de} ceased. We therefore find that }{\rtlch\fcs1 \af0 \ltrch\fcs0 \insrsid13849664\charrsid2055109 there is enough evidence to connect the first appellant with the offences. In our view he was properly convicted. His appeal is accordingly dismissed. }
