Count 2 and count 3 relate to accused uttering a false document cument pertaining to the Joint Clinical Research Centre on two occasions. Receipts purporting to have been issued by Joint Clinical Research Centre (JCRC) were presented by accused to the Project Management Unit (PMU) for purposes of accountability. He knew or had reason to believe they were not genuine. In Count 2 receipt no. 091301 dated 20 June 2005 purporting to have been issued by JCRC in acknowledgement of receipt of Shs. 1,525,000= for Voluntary Counsel

June 2005 purporting to have been issued by JCRC in acknowledgement of receipt of Shs. 1,525,000= for Voluntary Counsel ing Training Services to Bubuto, Bumulika, Sibanga and Bugobero was presented to PMU by accused. Count 3 concerns receipt no. 091307 dated 14 July 2005 purporting to have been issued by JCRC in acknowledgement of receipt of Shs. 330,000= for counseling and training of staff and community Aids workers.

July 2005 purporting to have been issued by JCRC in acknowledgement of receipt of Shs. 330,000= for counseling and training of staff and community Aids workers.

Evidence by PW4, an employee with JCRC at the time in issue who had been in charge of finance activities at the JCR

C was to the effect that the activities alleged in Count 2 and Count 3 never took place and that there were no transactions ansactions between JCRC and Murumba Uganda Inc, he knew of. He said documents presented as receipts in Count 2 and Count 3 were not genuine. There was also evidence by PW5, an expert at questioned documents. His evidence was that he compared the documents presented as receipts in Count 2 and Count 3 with samples of a genuine receipt issued by JCRC. His conclusion was that the purported receipts no. 091301 and 091307 were not genuine receipts issued by JCRC. In his defence all accused could say regarding the documents presented as receipts in Count 2 and Count 3 was that he was betrayed by the person who gave him those documents. He acknowledged he submitted them to PMU for accountability though they were false. There was no evidence the alleged activities took place. This was s testimony. It was the verdict given jointly by the assessors that the prosecution had proved Count 2 and Count 3 beyond reasonable doubt and that court should find accused guilty on both counts and convict him. I agree with that verdict.

I find accused guilty in Count 2 and Count 3. He is convicted on both counts.

In count 4, it is the prosecution case accused knowing and fraudulently presented for accountability to PMU receipt no 2056 dated 11 th

June, 2005 purporting to have been issued by Mari Stop

s Uganda for community training.

The amount involved is Shs. 2,200,000= but the prosecution case is that the activity never happened and Marie Stopes Uganda did not issue the purported receipt.

To support its case the prosecution presented the evidence of PW10 who testified that at the material time Marie Stopes did not do community mobilization. She added that no community training relating to reproductive health was done in 2005 either. She said the receipt she was shown as purp orting to have been issued by Marie Stopes was not genuine. It was her evidence payments to Marie Stopes are paid directly to the support office but not to the various centres or individuals. }

\par In Count 7 the charg e is uttering a false document wherein it is alleged that for his accountability accused submitted a document styled a letter of understanding between Murumba Uganda Inc, and Bumulika Sub County purporting to have been signed by one Makasi Peter. The docu ment shows Makasi Peter acknowledged}{\rtlch\fcs1 \af0\afs24 \ltrch\fcs0 \f0\fs24\insrsid3147518\charrsid13596646 receipts of 2 pigs, 13 chicken and 7 goats but the prosecution insists the document is false and that accused knowingly and fraudulently submitted it to PMU. Makasi Peter testified as PW7. He stated in his evidence that he knew accused as well as an organization related to as Murumba Uganda Inc. He said all that his organization called Bumulika

Tuban Association received in form of assistance for the orphans under his care were cold clothes donated to the orphans by visitors from overseas who had been introduced to them by the Murumba

Organization

He said afterwards the visitors had taken photographs of the occasion. PW7 denied ever receiving the alleged livestock let alone signing for it. He said the signature on the form was definitely not his.

Evidence was given also by the expert on questioned documents, PW5, whose conclusion was that the signature on the questioned documents purporting to be that of Makasi Peter was after all not his. He said he had compared the que stioned signature alongside samples tendered by Makasi. Evidence by PW12, and a Senior Auditor, showing there was nothing to justify alleged expenditure. In his defence accused did not argue that th e questioned signature was that of Peter Makasi. He said h e had wanted to submit proper documents for accountability but he had been let down by his social workers, It was the joint opinion of the assessors the prosecution had proved the charge in this count against the accused beyond reasonable doubt. They advi

Uttering a false document is also the charge in Count 8. The particulars show that accused knowingly
