RULING

of the page

This appeal arose from the decision of Ms. Sarah Langa sitting as Grade I Magistrate in Mukono in which she found that the appellant had a case to answer and ordered that he be put on his defence.

The appellant was charged with the offence of theft contrary to s. 254(1) and 261 of the Penal Code Act. The brief facts are that one Ssekaunde Joseph alleged that the appellant stole building materials worth shs 130,000,000/= from premises at L ower Kauga in Mukono. The prosecution called 4 witnesses to prove its case and they were all cross-examined by the appellant's advocate. At the end of the case for the prosecution, the appellant s advocate submitted that there was no case to answer. The co urt found that the prosecution had made out a prima facie case that was sufficient for the accused/appellant to be put on his defence. The case had been fixed for the appellant to defend himself on the 22/05/2009. Instead on the 21/05/2009, the accused/ap pellant chose to file this appeal and raised 3 grounds of appeal.

The gist of the appeal was that the trial magistrate did not properly evaluate the evidence in order to come to the conclusion that there was no case to answer and came to a wrong decision. It was also the appellant's s complaint that the trial magistrate did not address her mind to the submissions made by his advocate in advancement of the contention that the state had not made out a prima facie case against him. It is pertinent to note that th e appellant was all along out of prison on bail pending the conclusion of his trial.

\par The appeal was first called on for hearing on the 26/11/2009. The appeal was filed by M/s Abaine-Buregyeya and Co. Advocates. Hearing was fixed at the initiative of the R egistar who ordered that hearing notices be served on both parties. On that day the appellant was absent and so was his advocate, and this was in spite of the fact that a hearing notice was served on the advocates on the 23/11/2009. On that 26/11/2009, th e appellant\rqoute

s advocate also did not attend court. He talked to Mr. Sewankambo (RSA) and proposed to him that they both file written submissions in order to dispose of the appeal. I had my misgiving about the appeal and questioned whether the appellant had t he right to appeal against the decision of the lower court at the point that he did. I thus ordered that his advocate appear before me on the next hearing date and address me on whether the appellant had a right to file an appeal in this court before the hearing in the lower court was concluded. I adjourned the appeal to the 21/01/2010.

\par

\par Since both counsel for the appellant and the appellant himself were not in court on the 26/11/2009, a hearing notice was taken out and served on counsel for the appellant.

The affidavit of Florence Namafuta sworn on 20/01/2010 shows that on 19/01/2010, she went to the Chambers of Abeine-Buregyeya & Co. Advocates and effected service of the hearing notice on a secretary there who passed on the hearing notice to a lawyer in t h ose chambers. The hearing notice was received in protest because the advocate complained that he or his colleague had not been given sufficient time within which to appear before the date indicated for the hearing. The time between service and the hearing date was only one day.

\par

\par On the 21/01/2010, Mr. Sewankambo (RSA) appeared before me in the absence of the counsel for the appellant and the appellant. He observed that the appellant and his counsel had failed to attend court on both occasions when the appe al was called up for hearing. He submitted that the appellant\rqoute s counsel was abusing the court process by failing to attend court in spite of the fact that he was served with notice of hearings. He prayed that the appeal be dismissed under the provisions of s.17 (2) of the Judicature Act which provides for the supervisory powers of the High Court over magistrates courts as follows:

I addressed my mind to the said provisions and came to the conclusion that the appellant and his advocates may hav e filed this appeal with the intention of delaying the conclusion of the case in the lower court against the appellant. In the first place, the appellant had no right to appeal to this court after the court\quote s finding that he had a case to answer with respect to the charges preferred against him. This is because the right to appeal is a creature of statute. It is no where provided in the Magistrates\quote

Courts Act that an appeal may lie to this court after a ruling on a submission }\{\rtlch\fcs1

I agree with Mr. Sewankambo that this court has the duty to prevent such delay under the provisions of s.17 of the Judicature. For that reason and for the reason that the appellant had no right to appeal in the first place, the appeal is hereby dismissed

. The file shall be remitted to the Magistrate's Court to continue with hearing and disposal of the case against the accused/appellant.
